

Development and Sustainability Program (DSP)

Course Curriculum (PhD Degree)

PhD in Development and Sustainability Program (DSP)

The PhD requires 84 credits over 7 semesters to complete.

CREDITS	PhD
Required course credits	None
Elective course credits	Total 12 credits
	2 credits ED52.03 - Introduction to Development and Sustainability (optional)
	Any DW* Methodology courses (optional: audit or credit)
	Minimum 2 credits and maximum 4 credits of DSP courses
Thesis credits	Minimum of 2 credits and maximum 6 credits per program to be taken from courses offered in at least TWO programs out of GDS, NRM, RRDP, UEM
	Additional credits can be taken from any other DW/DSP courses
Total	84

* Department wide (DW)

Interdisciplinary
Courses taken from several development programs.

Practical
Focused on hands-on field experience and workshop exercises.

Environment and society focused
DSP covers both the environmental and social aspects of Development and Sustainability.