

Development and Sustainability Program (DSP)

Course Curriculum (MS Degree)

One-year MS degree in Development and Sustainability

The MS degree requires 30 credits over 2 semesters to complete.

CREDITS	MS
	Total 8 credits
Required course credits	2 credits ED52.03 - Introduction to Development and Sustainability 2 credits of DW* methodology course 4 credits DSP courses
Elective course credits	Total 16 credits Other DW* or DSP courses Minimum 2 credits and maximum 6 credits from each program amongst GDS/ NRM/ RRDP/ UEM
IWC	3
Project or Special study credits	3
Total	30

* Department wide (DW)  Institute wide courses (IWC)

Interdisciplinary
Courses taken from several development programs.

Practical
Focused on hands-on field experience and workshop exercises.

Environment and society focused
DSP covers both the environmental and social aspects of Development and Sustainability.