

Development and Sustainability Program (DSP)

Course Curriculum (MSc Degree)

Two-year MSc degree in DSP

The two-year MSc has three options: The 'Thesis' option, the 'Research Study' option and the 'Research Study + Minor' option.

OPTIONS	TH	RS	RS + Minor
Required credits	Total 8 credits 2 credits ED52.03 - Introduction to Development and Sustainability 2 credits of DW* methodology course 4 credits DSP courses
Elective credits	Total 13 credits • Other DW* or DSP courses • Minimum of 2 credits and maximum of 6 credits from each of 3 programs amongst GDS/ NRM/ RRD/ UEM	Total 25 credits • Other DW* or DSP courses • Minimum 3 credits and maximum 9 credits from each program amongst GDS/ NRM/ RRD/ UEM • Maximum 6 credits outside DSP or DW* courses	Total 13 credits • Other DW* or DSP courses • Minimum of 2 credits and maximum of 6 credits from each of 3 programs amongst GDS/ NRM/ RRD/ UEM
IWC	3	3	3
Thesis/ Research	24	12	12
Minor	0	0	12
Total	48	48	48

* Department wide (DW)  Institute wide courses (IWC)

Interdisciplinary
Courses taken from several development programs.

Practical
Focused on hands-on field experience and workshop exercises.

Environment and society focused
DSP covers both the environmental and social aspects of Development and Sustainability.