

WE ARE HIRING

RESEARCH ASSOCIATE (RA) POSITION

Department of Development and Sustainability is seeking a Research Associate (RA) in Rural study who will hold a full-time one-year contract position with one month of probation. The contract can be renewed after 1 year subject to the 1st year performance.

AIT
Asian Institute of Technology

TOR FOR RESEARCH ASSOCIATE (RA)

The selected RA will be responsible for:

- Conducting and preparing the reports on the landscape study in Saraburi province, Thailand focusing on the aspects of land-use change, socio-economic- demographic changes/transformation, environmental and natural resources management, development planning policy, and governance from national to the local level.
- Literature review of sustainable rural development models, particularly for peri-urban areas under the process of the rapid urbanization process
- Semi-structured Interviews and Questionnaire Surveys on the socio-environmental impacts of rural-urban transition in the study area
- Analyzing qualitative and quantitative data and assisting the project PI and Co-PI to draft at least two scientific papers
- Organizing one national training workshop and one regional forum on rural sustainability and engaging relevant ministries, departments, and organizations in the training and forum in the second year (if the contract is renewed).
- Assisting the project PI and Co-PI in communication and correspondence with partners and stakeholders and drafting the report requested by the donor.
- Preparing communication/dissemination dossier for the project (incl. field photos, workshop collection).
- Assisting the PI and Co-PI in any other research activities if required.

HOW TO APPLY

Interested candidate, please submit your CV to Ms. Agnes Pardilla (agnes@ait.ac.th) And copy (cc) to Dr. Thi Phuoc Lai Nguyen (phuoclai@ait.ac.th)

DEADLINE OF APPLICATION

5 March 2022

